Household Register

Under Supervision of The Ministry of Public Security of P.R.C

Note

- I. A household register is a legal document for proving the identification of a citizen and his/her relationship with the family members. It is the main evidence that the permanent residence registering administration rely on when taking verifying a census. The householder or the members of the household shall voluntarily hand out the household register for verification when the registering administration is making or verifying a census.
- II. The householder shall appropriately keep the household register. Unauthorized alteration, transfer, or lending of the register is strictly prohibited. In case the register is lost, it shall be reported to the permanent residence registering administration immediately.
- III. Only the permanent residence registering administration is authorized for registering in the household register. Any other units or individuals are forbidden to make any record in the register.
- IV. In case there is any increase or decrease of the household members, or the content of the register shall be altered, the household register shall be presented to the permanent residence registering administration to apply for alteration of the register.
- V. In case a whole household moves out of the administrative district, the household shall apply to the registering administration for cancellation of the register.
